He was one of the promoters of the Kentucky Union Railroad, in which several of our citizens were at that time interested.

THE Flemingsburg Times-Democrat says: "As the ravages of the hawks go far toward keeping down the quail supply in this country, as well as being destructive on domestic fowls, we suggest that every man who has a gun devote one day to a hawk hunt and to that end we suggest the first Friday in December, which will be the 7th.

Bourbon Wins.

At the State meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy held last week at Winchester, Mrs. R. G. Stoner was elected Treasurer and Mrs. Ann D. Lucas, Secretary. Mrs. R. J. Neely and Mrs. H. B. Clay were also in attendance.

Mrs. Stoner is a very attractive and cultured woman, has a wide circle of acquaintances throughout the State. The association honoring her with its highest office, will find they were very fortunate in their selection and her acceptance.

Mrs. Lucas, widow of Capt. J. W. Lucas, is the daughter of the late Gen. Desha, of Harrison county, and a sister of Col. Joseph and Capt. Ben Desha, deceased, two gallant officers in the famous Kentucky Orphan Brigade. A bright woman with a lovely christian character. The Daughters voted wisely in choosing her for this important office.

A Dastardly Trick.

Some time Sunday night a rear window in the Opera House was forced open and after gaining admission the person or persons went to the orchestra pit and cut the strings and otherwise mutilated the bass violin belonging to Charles Hukill, who plays in the Grand Orchestra. They also destroyed the bow. Manager Porter offers a reward of ten dollars for information which will lead to the conviction of the person or persons, and it is to be hoped that he will succeed in locating them.

A Paris Girl Entered a Convent.

Miss Mary O'Connor, daughter of the late Mayor Roger O'Connor, has taken the cap at the Academy of Our Lady of Angels, at Elmira, New York. This is a very strict order and is under the auspices of the Catholic church. When one takes the vows they are not allowed to go beyond the convent walls, and never see any one from the outer world except those in the class-rooms. Miss O'Connor is a gifted young lady. She has written numerous articles and poems for different magazines.

Bourbon Circuit Court.

THE Bourbon Circuit Court convened yesterday with Judge J. E. Cantrill and Commonwealth's Attorney Robt. Franklin on hand ready for business.

The following gentlemen compose the grand jury:

W. P. Ardery, for'n, Jephtha Butler, John G. Redmon, R. F. Wilson, John W. Wright, R. F. Adair, G. T. Bradley, Newt. Clark, Nathan Goodman, James Bryan, Lee Beal, B. F. Stipp.

A Narrow Escape.

Mr. Clay Stone and Miss Anna Victor, Mr. Lee Spears and Miss Ollie Buckner narrowly escaped a serious accident while driving home from the party given by Miss Sue Buckner, Friday night. The night was dark and rainy and their buggies collided, breaking both, so they were compelled to wait in the rain until daylight to repair one of the buggies, so they could get back to town. Mr. John Spears and Miss Jessie Turney had their buggy turned over the same night, but luckily escaped injury.

Serious Accident.

At Lexington, Sunday night, while returning from a fire, and crossing the railroad track, Fire Chief George W. Muir, Fireman Frank Sutton, Driver James McMurtrey and Tom Cromwell, a newspaper reporter, were struck by the C. &amp; O. switch engine, and all badly injured. It being dark and a severe storm raging, the engineer failed to hear the gong of the fire wagon.
